IN DREAMS.

BY ROSA PEARLE.

If never more, oh, never, never more
Thou and I, love, thou and I Should face to face in this world meet again
But pass the one the other by,
There still would be so much, so very much
Of happiness yet left, it seems,
For thou wouldst come, wouldst come to me
In dreams—to me in dreams.
I should not then be sad, and vainly long
With aching heart for life's release
For thou wouldst come, wouldst come and comfort me
And where thou art, ah, that is peace.
And so if never more, oh, never, never more,
We meet again, yet still there gleams
A glory 'mid the sombreness, the gloom—
Thou'lt come to me, to me in dreams.

SOCIETY NEWS.

Many items of interest suitable for this department from Sedalia or neighboring places, are respectfully solicited. We want a vivacious, active and cheerful lady corresponding in all the neighboring towns tributary to Sedalia. Address all such communications to Rosa Pearle, society reporter, Bazaar office, Sedalia, Mo.

Slowly, but surely, Time's hour glass loses its sands; slowly, but surely, moons flame and wane, and slowly, but surely the golden hearted days of summer dawn and lose themselves in the gloom of mid-night. One can hardly realize how quickly the year has grown to middle age and partly this is due to the fact that so little warm weather has been our guest. People who otherwise would have hastened to the "lake, the forest, or the field" to find healthful breezes at this season of the year, have tarried beneath their own vine and fig tree, not contented, perhaps, nor yet waiting until the shadows were longer grown, but biding the time until Phœbus' rays should send a message of heat to the chill resting above the face of Nature. Many and many a lovely costume has been prepared by our society dames and mesdames, but the material has been of the diaphanous sort and nobody cares to go away from home wearing last winter's campaign garments, because the weather is too cool to don the others. Let us not bewail the heat when it comes, but accept it gracefully, ay even joyfully, because—although a wee bit bit uncomfortable—there are those toilets—and then—it will be seasonable.

—Miss Bettie Jones returned home Sunday evening from Sedalia, where she enjoyed a very pleasant visit among relatives and friends.
—The ladies of the Cumberland Presbyterian church gave a lawn party and festival at the residence of B. G. Boone, Thursday evening.
—Mrs. Gwyllen, her two children and Mrs. Walton and daughters left Tuesday morning for Eldorado Springs, where they go to try the efficacy of the water.

—Miss Julia Cobine came home Thursday morning from an enjoyable visit with her friend, Miss Stella Vandryke, of Boonville.
—Miss Bettie Gentry and her sister, Mrs. Theodore Shelton, of St. Louis, came home last Thursday. Mrs. Shelton will spend the heated term here.
—Mrs. J. D. Frey and Miss Ella Hall, daughters of Mr. John I. Hall, of this city, accompanied by Mrs. Frey's children, are spending the heated term at Lake Minnetonka.
—A party made up of the best society people of the city are contemplating a short sojourn at Sweet Springs about the last of the present or the beginning of the next month.
—Miss Mittie Coffman and Miss Julia Finch, who have been visiting friends in this city, left for their homes, in Warrensburg, on Wednesday last. They left behind many admirers.
—Miss Maggie Chambers, an agreeable young lady from Boonville, who has been visiting Mrs. Col. J. D. Crawford, left for Warrensburg, yesterday morning, where she will visit friends.
—Some of Sedalia's fair society belles are not merely of the ornamental order, but fashion their own lovely costumes with a skill only equaled by those who make such things a lifetime avocation.
—Our lives should be, like the days, more beautiful in the evening; or, like the spring, aglow with promise, and like autumn, rich with golden sheaves, when good works and deeds have ripened in the field.
—Will the two kindly hearted ladies who sent the society reporter an elegantly arranged bouquet receive her sincere thanks? It was indeed a "thing of beauty," and lent a fragrance to the dreary day, more than merely enjoyable.
—Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Beattie, Mrs. Sallie Smith and Mr. Will Jaynes left last Wednesday night for St. Paul, Minn. Mr. Jaynes will go to Lake Minnetonka; the others make the tour of the lakes. They will be absent about a month.
—Miss Emma and Kittie Kidd, who have been visiting their brother, Mr. E. R. Kidd, at Canton, Ohio, returned home on last Thursday evening. The ladies will stay here several days and then go to Kansas City to visit friends and relatives.
—Miss Hattie Jaynes gave an informal, but very enjoyable, tea at the family residence, on Broadway, last Friday evening, to a few of her young lady friends. The Misses Fannie and Addie Samuels were present, as were also Misses Mary and Nannie Gentry, Miss Mattie Parker and several others.
—A pleasant little party was given at the residence of Mrs. Hubbard, on Pettis street, in honor of her young daughter, Agnes, Tuesday evening. A number of young misses and masters were present. Refreshments were served, and an enjoyable time was had.

—Miss Grace Miller entertained a number of her friends at her residence, on Fifth street, last Monday evening. A charming time was had, and all spoke in glowing terms of Miss Grace as a hostess. Choice refreshments were served at 10 o'clock, and much enjoyed by the guests. Among those present were: Misses Julia Fitch and Mittie Coffman, of Warrensburg, Mattie Kennedy, Addie West, Belle Herold, Hattie Belle Tracer and Messrs. Fred Houx, Ernest Heaton, Harry Miller, Will Ramsey, Will Deane, Bayliss Steele, Frank Hughes and Lee Byler, of this city.

—A beautiful bouquet of brilliant mid-summer flowers, arranged by Mrs. Dillman of this vicinity, and presented to Misses Jennie Herick and Barbara Winters, is at present a charming natural feature of their millinery establishment.
—Some of our ladies have organized a missionary society and will hold a public meeting on the 22d of this month. The churches and other causes owe much to the public spirit and good works of the women of Sedalia City.

—A surprise party at the residence of Mr. Charles Graves, in this vicinity, called out a number of our nice young people on Wednesday evening. It is said that a dearth of refreshments was due to Dr. Wherritt's having gone on in advance and made way with all the cake in the house, which should have served for the whole company. The occasion and ride were very pleasant. Among the gentlemen present, perhaps there was no knight of the whip and lines who can drive with more skill and ease than Mr. Granville Peoples, who also excels in graceful acts of kindness.

—Mrs. Chas. T. Collins spent several days visiting in Sedalia last week.
—Mrs. Steane, accompanied by Miss Hattie Pollock, is visiting in Carthage.
